

About Mr. Hilute Hudson, III

Born and raised in Louisville, Mississippi, Hilute Hudson, III began his career in education in 2006 as an Algebra I teacher, football coach, and head basketball coach at Louisville High School in Louisville, MS. Mr. Hudson has served as an Assistant Principal, Athletic Director, Principal, Federal Programs Director, and Assistant Superintendent. In 2015, Mr. Hudson began his tenure as principal of Louisville High School. He cultivated a positive change to school climate and culture inspiring the students and staff to “Go Be Great.” Prior to 2015, Louisville High School had been a D-rated school with a graduation rate of 67%. Under Mr. Hudson’s transformational leadership, the school achieved tremendous growth and achieved ‘B’ level status. Mr. Hudson led Louisville High to unparalleled success in both academics and athletics. Currently, Mr. Hudson serves as Superintendent of Education in the Kemper County School District. Mr. Hilute Hudson holds a bachelor’s degree in Industrial Engineering from Mississippi State University. He earned his master’s degree in Educational Leadership from the University of Southern Mississippi.