

Representative Lataisha Jackson was sworn into the Mississippi House of Representatives in 2013. She serves as the Vice Chair of Investigate State Offices and on Appropriations, Universities and Colleges, Public Property, Judiciary B, and Local and Private committees.

Representative Jackson is an entrepreneur and philanthropist. She organizes efforts to support community development, engagement, and educational support services as the CEO and founder of EDUCATE Social and Public Policy Inc.

In 2018, the American Council of Young Political Leaders chose her as a member of their 7 member delegation to travel to China and Taiwan, and to join a network of over 8,500 alumni in 128 countries and territories. In 2014, the National Foundation of Women Legislation recognized Representative Jackson as an Elected Woman of Excellence, and she currently serves as the Mississippi State Director for the organization.

Representative Jackson obtained her Bachelor's degree in English Language Arts and Master's degree in Educational Leadership from Alabama State University. She received her Juris Doctorate from the University of Mississippi School of Law.